Dear BED Members:

You made it through the spring semester! I hope you've taken a moment to recognize your accomplishments this semester. I also look forward to seeing many of you in just a few weeks at the ASEE annual conference in Portland. Stay tuned for more info to come about ASEE BED elections. Note that advanced registration ends today (June 1) for reduced rates.

Congratulations Corner

1. Submit Your Accomplishments

Submit this short form to be featured in an upcoming ASEE Biomedical Engineering Division newsletter to highlight member accomplishments (self-submit or submit on behalf of someone you know). We will highlight accomplishments that are related to BME education and induction of ASEE BED members as fellows of related professional organizations (e.g., BMES, AIMBE). Seeing the teaching and career-related accomplishments of colleagues in education-focused roles has served as important inspiration for me over the years, and I hope it will do the same for you!

General Announcements

1. ASEE 2024 Conference Registration

You can register for the ASEE 2024 annual meeting here. Advanced registration ends June 1, 2024 for reduced rates.

Participate

1. BEEC Share and Learn: The What and How of External Letters for Promotion – Both Getting Them and Writing Them

Join Us for a very special workshop!

What: an active virtual workshop on learning how to write promotion letters and how to develop a portfolio and ask letter writers

Leads: Dr. Todd Fernandez, Dr. Rebecca Reck, Dr. Jenny Amos, Dr. Joe Tranquillo

Prompt: "The What and How of External Letters for Promotion – Both Getting Them and Writing Them"

When: Thursday June 6th, 2024, 12-2pm EST

Where: Zoom – Register Here

Zoom Link: <https://uci.zoom.us/j/98140656707>

2. ASEE Workshop: Engineering for US All (e4usa)

Liaisons Wanted: Learn How to Become an e4usa Liaison at Our FREE Workshop, ASEE 2024!

Join the Engineering for US All (e4usa) initiative, a pioneering national program designed to introduce high school students and their teachers to the engineering world, regardless of their previous technical experience. As an e4usa liaison, you'll have the opportunity to collaborate with experienced peers and receive continuous support from the e4usa team. Discover the unique aspects of the e4usa courses and explore diverse ways to contribute to your teacher-partner and their students' success.

Liaisons volunteer to provide insight on engineering design, while also connecting educators and students with others in the field. Furthermore, these engineers have the opportunity to share valuable insights about their job and specialized areas of expertise, enriching the learning experience for both students and educators alike. By partnering with local schools, companies, and community members, we are dedicated to providing an educational experience that inspires students to harness their knowledge and passions to make a meaningful impact on the world. Volunteering is open to individuals regardless of whether there is an e4usa school nearby or across the country. Our reach is global! Start your journey as an e4usa liaison at our upcoming workshop at the 2024 ASEE Annual Conference on Sunday, June 23, 2024, from 1:00 PM to 3:30 PM in Room C120 in the Oregon Convention Center—U495R. Help us broaden participation in engineering and empower a new generation to confidently shape the world!

3. BE NSPIRE - Biomedical Engineering Network of Students and Post-docs in Research and Education

Mission - A Biomedical Engineering Hub for Connecting Minds and Advancing Knowledge for Transformative Educational Experiences

We are a hub for students/post-docs to engage in research discussions, novel teaching practices, and networking opportunities in Biomedical Engineering. Our online forums, workshops, seminars, and collaborative initiatives will unite the next generation of Biomedical Engineering educators. Please use this link to join our Slack!

1. Tidbit: National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity

Do you have a plan for your summer? Often, faculty see summer as a time to "catch up" but are not realistic in how to do so (me included!). One resource I have found really helpful is NCFDD, National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity. If your University is a partner, check out what they have to offer. Although NCFDD is most well known for their Faculty Success Program (which I have not participated in, but have heard great things about), they also offer recordings and other resources. Last summer, I found it helpful to follow along with a recording of the Every Summer Needs a Plan webinar. I intend to implement some of those same techniques this summer as well.

2. Biomedical Engineering Education Community \(BEEC\) Resources

BEEC's website contains recordings, slides, and resources for the biomedical engineering education community. Need ideas for what textbook to use in your BME course? Alternative grading techniques? Funding opportunities in engineering education? Learning more about educational research? Find this and much, much more!

3. ASEE Commission on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (CDEI)- Virtual Workshop Recordings

Position Announcements

Note: We advertise positions that have a BME education focus to ensure relevance to our BED members. Advertisements may include the following: teaching-focused faculty (TT or NTT) or staff positions, TT positions at PUI or R2+ institutions that have a larger workload and emphasis on teaching, and TT positions that allow for educational scholarship instead of traditional engineering research. If submitting a job posting, please ensure it meets these criteria.

Call for Newsletter Content

The ASEE BED bi-monthly newsletter is a place to share general announcements, open positions, BME education resources, Tidbits, etc. To send an announcement via the BED newsletter, please prepare a 2-3 paragraph description including any relevant URLs and contact info as well as a subject line. Do not include any attachments. Be sure that the announcement includes the person to contact with questions. Email all of this information to Sarah Rooney at sirooney@udel.edu with [BED Announcement] in the subject line to facilitate email sorting. Announcements will be sent out approximately on the 1st and 15th of each month. Each set of announcements will be included in the newsletter twice. Announcements will also be recorded on the BED website (<https://sites.asee.org/bed/>) and HUB (<https://aseehub.asee.org/groups/home/34#active-group-members>). To submit a Tidbit, use the same process described above AND label it as a Tidbit and include your name and title/affiliation.
