Managing Capstone during COVID-19 - NEW Community Board

Wondering how to manage your capstone design course via remote learning? Have ideas to share or questions to ask? Check out the NEW "Capstone Contingency Planning" board that some capstone design community members have set up on Trello! In this board, each new idea gets a card and there is a discussion section below the card where people can share related Q&A and even upload attachments. See the ideas that have already been posted and feel free to add your comments and/or create new topic cards.
