- The call for papers is available on the DEED website.
- The author's kit is available here.
- As a reminder, in addition to the ASEE “Publish to Present” requirements, DEED requires the support of its authors in “Review to Publish” at both the abstract and manuscript stages.

UPCOMING DEADLINES:

- Wednesday Jan 15, 2025:
 - Drafts due in NEMO There will not be an extension of the draft paper deadline (barring a natural disaster like we experienced in the fall).
- Tuesday December 31, 2025:
 - 2025 ASEE Annual Conference Promotional Registration Rate Deadline
 - Program Chairs: Abstract Decision Announcement

DEED Announcements for December 2024

Position Announcements

1. POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Carthage College -tenure-track faculty

Do you want to be a part of a growing community-focused engineering program? Apply to join our team. We seek a dedicated engineering educator to join the faculty as a tenure-track Assistant Professor of Engineering starting August 2025. The successful applicant will be involved in shaping our new Engineering programs; ones that are informed by disciplinary best practices, mesh with the mission of the College, build on the existing curricular strengths of the College, and engage meaningfully with our community. We seek a teacher-scholar with expertise in thermal-fluids energy systems. Applicants from all engineering backgrounds will be considered.
