2021 FPD GRANT ANNOUNCEMENT

We are excited to open the application form for the 2021 FPD Engineering Educator Grant! This is the inaugural year of the grant and we are eager to start this program to assist individuals in engaging with the First-Year Program Division at the ASEE Annual Conference and Exhibition.

Each grant consists of reimbursement of receipted registration, travel, food and accommodation expenses up to a maximum of $1500. Those applicants that can provide evidence of financial need for support to attend the conference will be prioritized in consideration for this award. Furthermore, grant recipients are expected to attend the full duration of the conference, including the FPD Meeting, and at least one FPD Technical Session.

To apply for the 2021 FPD Engineering Educator Grant (and for more information about the application process, eligibility, deadlines, etc.), please use this Google Form. Applications are due by Friday, February 19, 2021.

FPD at KEEN

If you are presenting at the KEEN National Conference coming up in February, please provide your session title and a link to your card using the form linked below. We will circulate the list to FPD in advance of the conference. <https://forms.gle/Tr9frLair81C6ZtB9>

FUTURE FYEE CONFERENCE HOSTS

FYEE is presently recruiting hosts for the 2025 and 2026 FYEE conferences. Review the FYEE Host Proposal Guidelines and prepare a FYEE Host Proposal Form. Submit your proposal including your Budget Plan through this form by 5:00 pm EDT, May 31st, 2021. For more information and details of past conferences, please see the FYEE webpage or contact FYEE Steering Committee chair, Blake Hylton at j-hylton@onu.edu

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Case Western Reserve University is seeking a qualified candidate to fill a non-tenure track faculty position: Instructor and Assistant Director of the Roger E. Susi First-Year Engineering Experience. The full-time, 12-month academic position will involve both teaching and administrative duties within the Division of Engineering Leadership and Professional Practice in the Case School of Engineering of Case Western Reserve University. The assistant director director will teach hands-on courses in the new First-Year Engineering Experience and manage program activities. Qualifications include a graduate degree in engineering or a related field and three years teaching experience. For best consideration, please apply by January 30, 2021. For more details, please see <https://case.edu/academic-careers/instructor-and-assistant-director-first-year-engineering-experience-case-school-engineering> or contact Kurt Rhoads, Associate Professor and search chair: krr38@case.edu.

Looking forward, we hope you will join us at the 2021 ASEE Annual Conference at Long Beach, CA and the 2021 FYEE Conference at the University of Maryland!
