

2017 CONFERENCE WRAP-UP

PAPERS & PRESENTATIONS

13 speakers highlighted 3 themes in the Aero division presentations:
Efficient Authenticity: Modeling, Labs, and Real-World Applications
Innovations in Aero Curriculum and Program Level Administration
Unmanned Aerial Systems

Audience attendance was around 30, a comfortable size for interaction.
Copies of the papers are available for free at asee.org.

1 Aero Paper (Mobile Aero Education Lab, Elizabeth City State University) was nominated as best diversity paper in PIC I. Good work, Dr. Rawat, Dr. Lawrence, and Cmdr. Gooden!

Continuing the field trip tradition:
The division coordinated a visit to the National Museum of the USAF in Dayton, Ohio.

Division dues of $5 supports

- Division social events at conference
- Awards for student-authored papers

MEMBERSHIP IN ALL PIC I
DIVISIONS HAS BEEN FALLING
OVER THE LAST 10 YEARS!

Our PIC I leaders are asking: what can the divisions do to increase value of membership?

Aero wants to hear from you!
