Call for Participation: Designing Student-Centered Learning Experiences: 2019 Summer Institute at Olin College:

The 2019 Collaboratory Summer Institute, Designing Student-Centered Learning Experiences (<http://www.olin.edu/collaborate/collaboratory/summer-institute/>), is a week-long interactive workshop for faculty teams engaged in a curricular change effort at their own institution, and will be held June 10-14, at Olin College. Through participatory workshops, immersive design exercises, and presentations, teams of faculty learn about, experience, and practice effective, engaging teaching approaches for new and meaningful curricula. Apply here: <http://www.olin.edu/collaborate/collaboratory/summer-institute/apply/designing/>.

The P-12 Educator Conference is back with an exciting new approach! The Pre-College Engineering Education Division of ASEE has partnered with the local public schools in the Tampa area to provide their P-12 educators with session topics relevant for their district. This one-day conference will take place starting at 9:00a on Saturday, June 15, 2019 at Rampello K-8 School in the School District of Hillsborough County. The primary attendees of the 2019 P-12 is $50 and includes participation in the full day of sessions, the curriculum exchange, and lunch.

Please use the following links for more information and to submit your presenter and/or showcase application. Please contact Bradley Bowen at bowenb@vt.edu with any questions.
