Wickenden Award:
Annual best paper award based on:

- transformative
potential
- potential for impact
- exemplar of quality

- Named in honor of William Elgin Wickenden, an engineer, educator, philosopher, administrator, and humanitarian. Wickenden wrote an essay, "The Second Mile," which has helped young engineers conceptualize engineering as a career and a profession.

Recent Wickenden Award winners:

- 2019 Awardees: Susan Lord, Matthew Ohland, Richard Layton, and Michelle Camacho, authors of "Beyond pipeline and pathways: Ecosystem metrics" (January 2019)
- 2019 Honorable Mention: Michael Eastman, Monica Miles and Randy Yerrick, authors of "Exploring the White and male culture: Investigating individual perspectives of equity and privilege in engineering education" (October 2019)

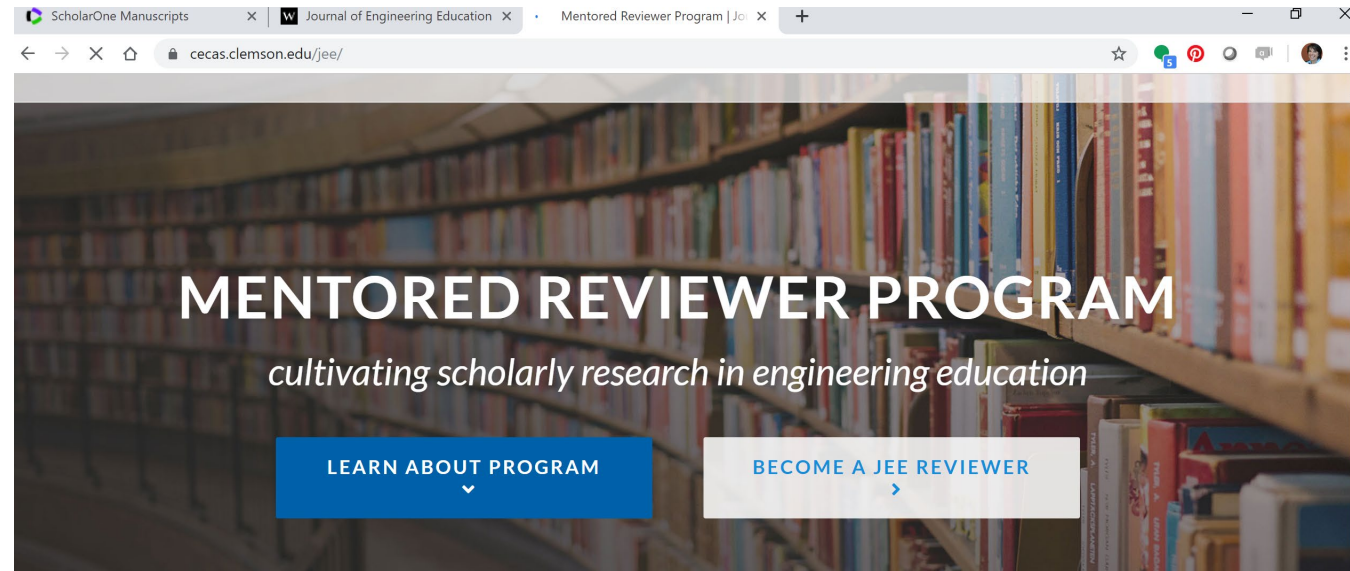

Star Reviewer Award: Recognizing the hard work of JEE's top peer reviewers

- Established in 2018
- Awardees selected based on:
 - Number of reviews completed
 - Recommendations by Associate Editors
 - Constructive nature of reviews
- Congratulations to JEE's 2020 Star Reviewers!
 - Catherine Berdanier, Penn State University (2020)
 - Samantha Brunhaver, Arizona State University (2020)
 - Andrea Goncher, University of Florida (2020)
 - James Huff, Harding University (2020)

Mentored Reviewer Program: Fulfilling JEE's mission to cultivate scholarly research in engineering education

- Established in 2019
- Mentees (novice reviewers) work with a mentor (experienced, highly rated reviewers) to collaboratively write reviews for three manuscripts
- Mentees selected through competitive application process; mentors invited or nominated
- Find out more at www.cecas.clemson.edu/jee/

“Our teamhad a great conversation, and the article we were assigned worked out to be such that we really each were able to bring some of our own expertise to the review. I am finding this a really rewarding, intellectually stimulating, and fun process.”
Jennifer Bekki, Mentor
