PIC I Chair Report – Abhijit Gosavi on behalf of Stephanie Adams
Abhijit and Lesley had attended the meeting chaired by Stephanie. Abhijit summarized the following developments for the IED business meeting participants.

- The exact statistics related to number of sessions and attendees this year are not available because the person responsible for gathering the data is currently hospitalized. However, the numbers are very close to the numbers from the previous year, and the exact numbers can be requested from Stephanie in about 2 months.
- A new executive director for ASEE was hired last year.
- Session evaluations have been suspended for this year; next year, they will be available on the website for the session chair.
- Stephanie reported that some faculty members had abused the system by using student registration and name tags in the previous year. She also said that a proposal to restructure the fees was being considered to minimize the probability of such abuse in the future.
- PIC best paper committee: The PIC chairs are considering a proposal to form a best-PIC-paper-selection committee (to replace the one-person committee that exists now); each of the thirteen divisions will nominate one person to the committee. The current program chair may not be nominated to serve on this committee. A person who has submitted a paper that is being considered for the best PIC paper award should not be nominated for this position. Any other person from the division is acceptable. Five persons will be selected from the nominations made.
- Professional dues going up: Currently, the professional dues are $69 for faculty members and $20 for students. They will go up to $84 for faculty and $25 for students. If a faculty member chooses to not get the hard copy version of Prism, but only have access to it online, the dues will remain at $69 (Professional Online Membership).
- A division chair had concerns about the appearance of the conference proceedings. The proceedings currently do not show the name of the conference, year, location etc anywhere on the pages (top or bottom), and suggested that changes be made to the appearance in the future.
- Neal Lewis discussed the issue of the program chair’s inability to reject a paper in its second review after it is accepted with changes in the first review. He also said if the program chair submits a paper, it disappears from the system, and nobody has access to it.

Attendees of the IED business meeting provided feedback to Abhijit to be communicated to Stephanie. The feedback is summarized below.

- No-shows in the conference should be tracked (Kim Needy).
- Batches of different colors should be provided for students and faculty to minimize the reported abuse of student registration fees by faculty members in the conference registration (Rick Olson).
- A one-day registration should be offered for those who attend the conference for only one day (Denise Bauer).

A general discussion on this year’s conference ensued. Some of the salient points are summarized below.

- Most IED participants liked the table set up at the division mixer. Suggestions were made regarding what should be offered on the table. One suggestion was to showcase the awards that were presented in the current year via the plaques. It was suggested that different kinds of candy, including M & M, be purchased (Terri Lynch-Caris). It was also suggested that tables at the mixer be ordered in alphabetical order (Eric Specking). Almost all attendees liked the idea of bookmarks that were made this year.
- It was recommended by many of the attendees that the name of the division should appear as “Industrial Engineering Division” not as “Industrial Division” in the conference program and at the mixer table for the following year. Lawrence, Lesley, and Abhijit have assumed the responsibility of approaching different persons at ASEE to ensure that the correct name appears consistently in the next year’s program and at the mixer table.
- There was a long discussion on session evaluations; attendees expressed their opinions and suggested that the program chair request the session chair to print the evaluation forms to evaluate his/her session.

Program Chair Report – Lesley Strawderman

Lesley presented an account of this year’s program from IED.

- 26 Abstracts submitted
- 17 Proceedings
- 2 sessions, average attendance: 25
- 13 reviewers
- 4 moderators

All sessions assigned to IED were used up.
Financial Report – Jose Espiritu on behalf of Heidi Taboada
Expenses for the San Antonio meeting included $301.00 for the awards (plaques), $73.86 for bookmarks at the division mixer, and $269.13 for lunch at the business meeting. As of the San Antonio meeting, the balances of the IED accounts are:

Ending BASS account balance = 20,789.29
Operating account balance = 240.00

Old Business

This year a subset of the awards presented are from last year’s presentations. This is in accordance with the changes made in the bylaws in the previous year. The only award from the current year’s papers was made for the Best Division Paper.

Lesley Strawderman suggested that the responsibility of the table at the mixer should go to the program chair-elect, because the program chair has a number of duties to perform during the conference. Jane made a motion to this effect, Leonardo seconded it, and it was unanimously approved.

Installation of New Officers – Abhijit Gosavi
Because the Bylaws provide for orderly transition of officers, only a new Secretary/Treasurer was needed to be elected. Two candidates were proposed for the position: 1) Gene Dixon (nominated by Lawrence Whitman) and 2) Leonardo Bedoya-Valencia (nominated by Abhijit Gosavi). The nominated candidates were encouraged to speak up, and then a vote by secret ballot was called. Ballots were made and distributed. Leonardo got 8 votes, and Gene got 5 votes. Leonardo was declared winner.

Jane Fraser made a proposal that she be replaced by Lawrence Whitman on the board. Kim Needy made the motion and Karen Bursic seconded it. The motion was approved unanimously. The IED officers for the coming year will now be:

- Division Chair: Lesley Strawderman
- Program Chair: Rick Olson
- Program Chair-Elect: Heidi Taboada
- Secretary/Treasurer: Leonardo Bedoya-Valencia
- Awards/Past Division Chair: Abhijit Gosavi
- PIC Chair: Stephanie Adams
- Directors: Lawrence Whitman (2014)
- Jessica Matson (2013)
- Kim LaScola Needy (2013)
- Terri Lynch-Caris (2014)
- Newsletter Editor: Rick Olson
